

Summer School for Planetary Science

Application For Attendance

Discovery Micromissions: Focused Low-Cost Science

August 7 - 11, 2000

California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California

Recent PhD graduates and PhD candidates in the planetary sciences are eligible to attend the lecture series. Limited funds are available to provide partial support for travel and lodging. (See item 4 below) The deadline for receipt of the application is June 11, 2000. An endorsement by the thesis adviser is required below for graduate students.

Personal Information:

- 1) Name _____
- 2) Citizenship _____
- 3) Address _____
- 4) City, State, Zip _____
- 5) Telephone _____
- 6) Email _____
- 7) Employer _____

School Information:

- 8) University _____
- 9) Address _____
- 10) City, State, Zip _____
- 11) Telephone _____

12) Are Partial travel and lodging funds requested? (y/n) _____

(Civil servants, JPL employees, Caltech students, and individuals living outside the United States are not eligible for financial support.)

13) Did you attend in 1999? (y/n) _____

14) Describe how your research/thesis topic relates to the theme and discussion topics of the series. (Please attach a one-page, typed description.)

For Graduate Students:

- 15) Target Degree _____
- 16) Discipline _____
- 17) Thesis Topic _____
- 18) Graduate Advisor _____
- 19) Department _____
- 20) Telephone _____
- 21) Signature _____

Summer School for Planetary Science

For Recent PhD Graduates:

22) Date of Degree _____
23) Research Activity _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Email to: Corinne.L.Karpinski@jpl.nasa.gov or Fax Application to (818) 354-7586

or via U.S. Mail to:

C. Karpinski

4800 Oak Grove Drive, M/S: 264-788

Pasadena, CA 91109-8099

Individuals are requested to e-mail their applications, although faxing and mailing the application is acceptable. Please exercise only one option.